Anger
Management

COURSE LENGTH: 1.0 DAYS

Anger is a normal, healthy emotion but can quickly become unhealthy and detrimental if not understood and controlled. It's a matter of learning how to focus and redirect this energy in a positive manner or learn how to avoid it all together.

The PD Training Anger Management Training Course teaches you how to manage anger so that it does not control you, but instead helps to you achieve positive outcomes. The training course includes skill development in resolving problems, being objective, handling angry people, negotiating, controlling situations and more, so that anger can be managed and used productively.

Some participants attend this course as required by courts and their counselors, so check with your local magistrate for approval if this is your intention.

We look forward to welcoming you to an Anger Management training course and workshop in Auckland, Christchurch and Wellington.
