Today's Workplace

COURSE LENGTH: 1.0 DAYS

When creating written communications in the workplace, it is essential that the details of the communication be correct, while the basic layout of the document is appropriate, and the ideas are presented logically and effectively.

The PD Training Business Essentials Writing course teaches participants how to assure the effectiveness of any type of business writing, whether its reports, proposals and even emails and ensures documents these are written using the correct sentence structure, grammar, and formatting.

Participants will learn key business writing skills like planning the document content, writing for the reader, conversational styles, the use or avoidance of industry jargon and multiple types of document styling.

This dynamic and practical training course is now available throughout New Zealand, including Auckland, Christchurch or Wellington and also via instructor-led online training.

BUSINESS WRITING ESSENTIALS COURSE OUTLINE

FOREWORD

This workshop is about creating well-written business documents. The course reviews the basic principles that apply to all forms of writing and provide you with a framework through which you can improve your writing.

The motto of PD Training is to 'Empower Improvement'. We seek to enhance people's work life by providing you with skills that you can utilise immediately back in your workplace. The best way to identify how to utilise these newfound writing skills, is to reflect on the activities that you performed throughout your training and implement them as soon as possible in the workplace.
