Leveraging the Benefits of Generation Gaps

COURSE LENGTH: 1.0 DAYS

Learning how to manage people from different generations first requires an understanding of the environment in which their personality was developed, and secondly you need the skills to handle the differences in personality types.

The PD Training Leveraging the Generation Gap Training Course provides you with a comprehensive and deep understanding of the different generations; namely the traditionalists, Baby Boomers, Generation X and Generation Y. It also provides training in conflict management, conflict resolution processes and the building of harmony and equivalence.

This intensive and lively training course is now available across New Zealand, including Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch.

LEVERAGING THE GENERATION GAP TRAINING COURSE OUTLINE

FOREWORD

The workplace can present challenges to management in terms of handling the different generations present. As older workers delay retiring and younger workers are entering the workforce, the work environment has become a patchwork of varying perspectives and experiences, all valuable to say the least.

While having various cultures in one workplace can present communication problems and conflicts, the benefits of such a variety in the workplace outweigh it. Both the young and older worker have many ideas to offer, which can help the organisation thrive in the marketplace. Learning how to deal with the generation gap at work will help you become a better manager or co-worker.

This 'Generations Gap Training Course' will help you understand the various generations present at work and understand what motivates each of them and how to work together.
